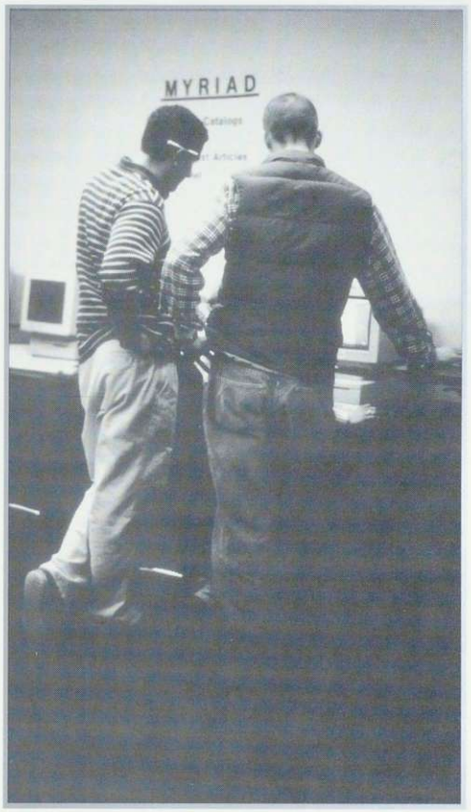
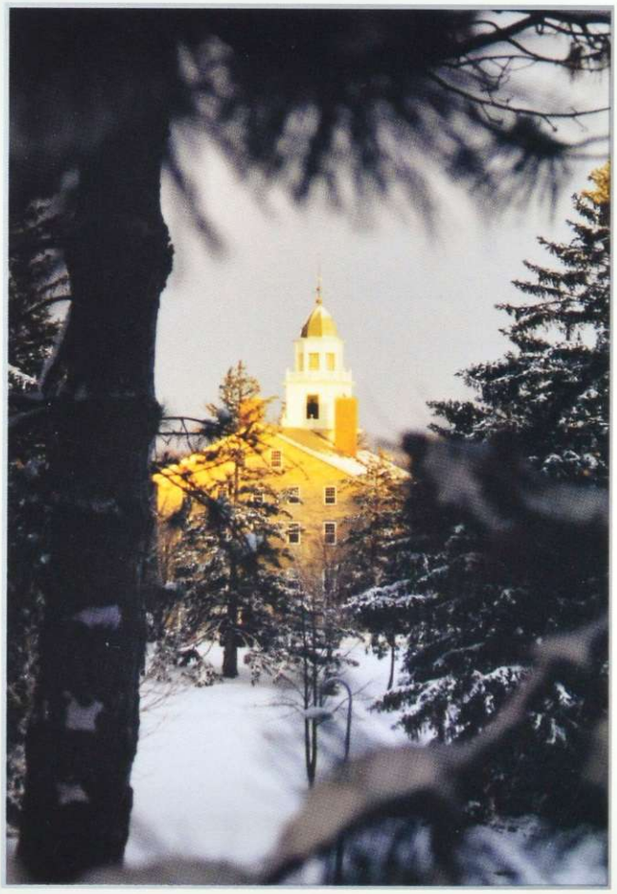
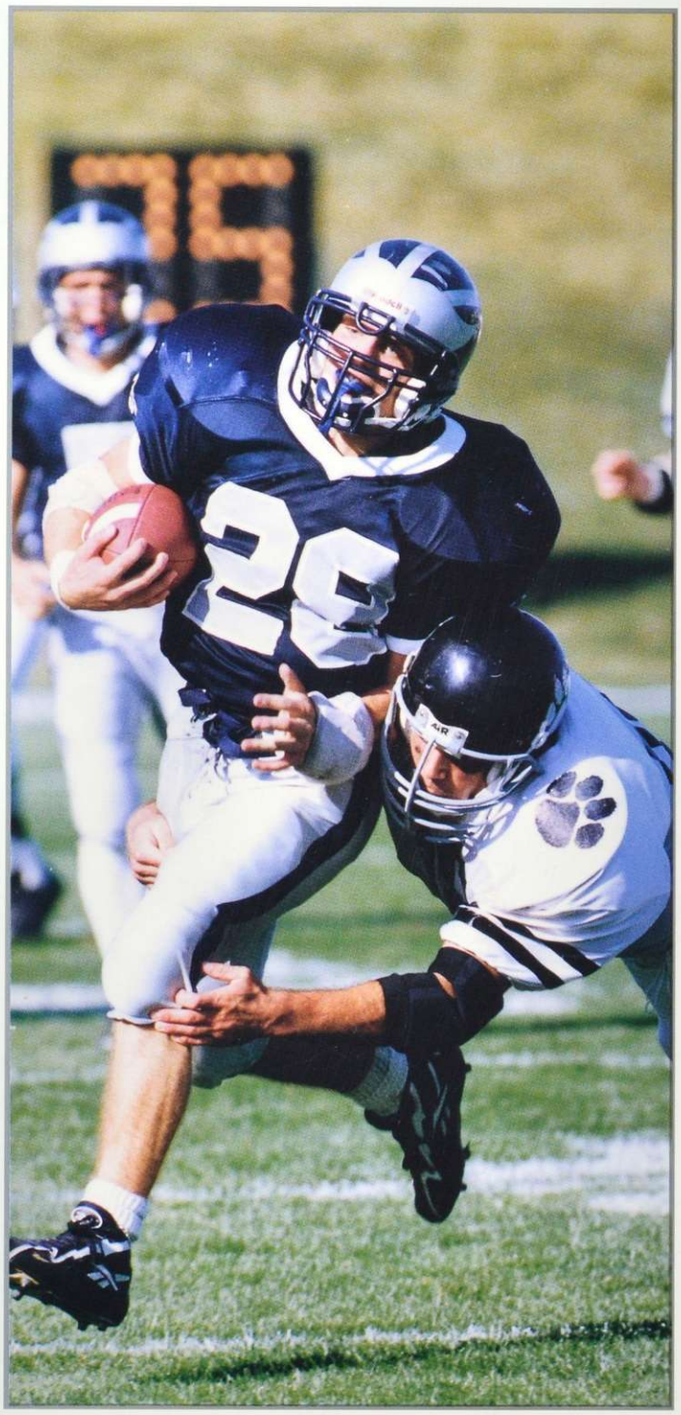
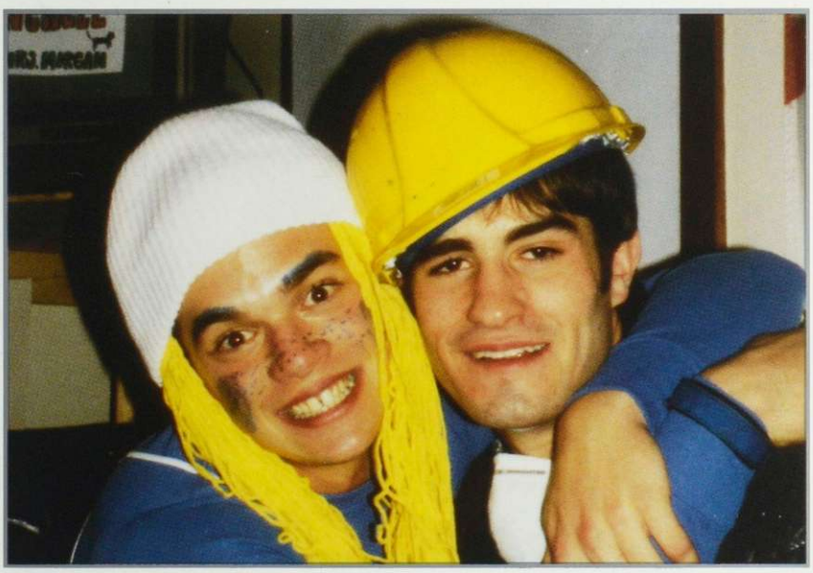
there are days that you want to go on being a student forever. for four years middlebury is home. the first time you caught yourself referring to your dorm as home, you laughed. you started to really notice life sometime after your first semester.







Henry Hopkins



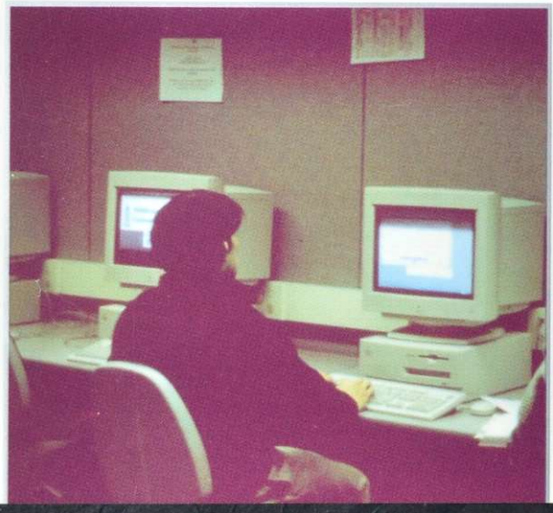
on campus, winter lasts forever and the mud between you and McCullough upsets spring. but the reason you came here is the people.

Meg Hankins

it is only an echo of college life, a wandering ray from a students bower that comes to greet you. behind the curtain life much there is that will bear recital-much that need not be told.

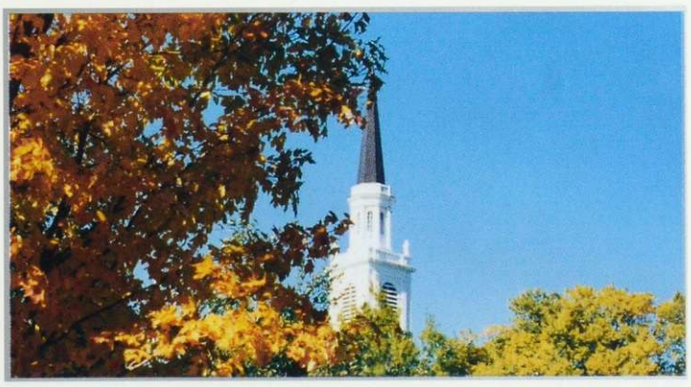
but within these pages the veil has been lifted; you behold the painted gleam of a student's life. through the kaleidoscope you behold the true landscape, ever changing in form and color.

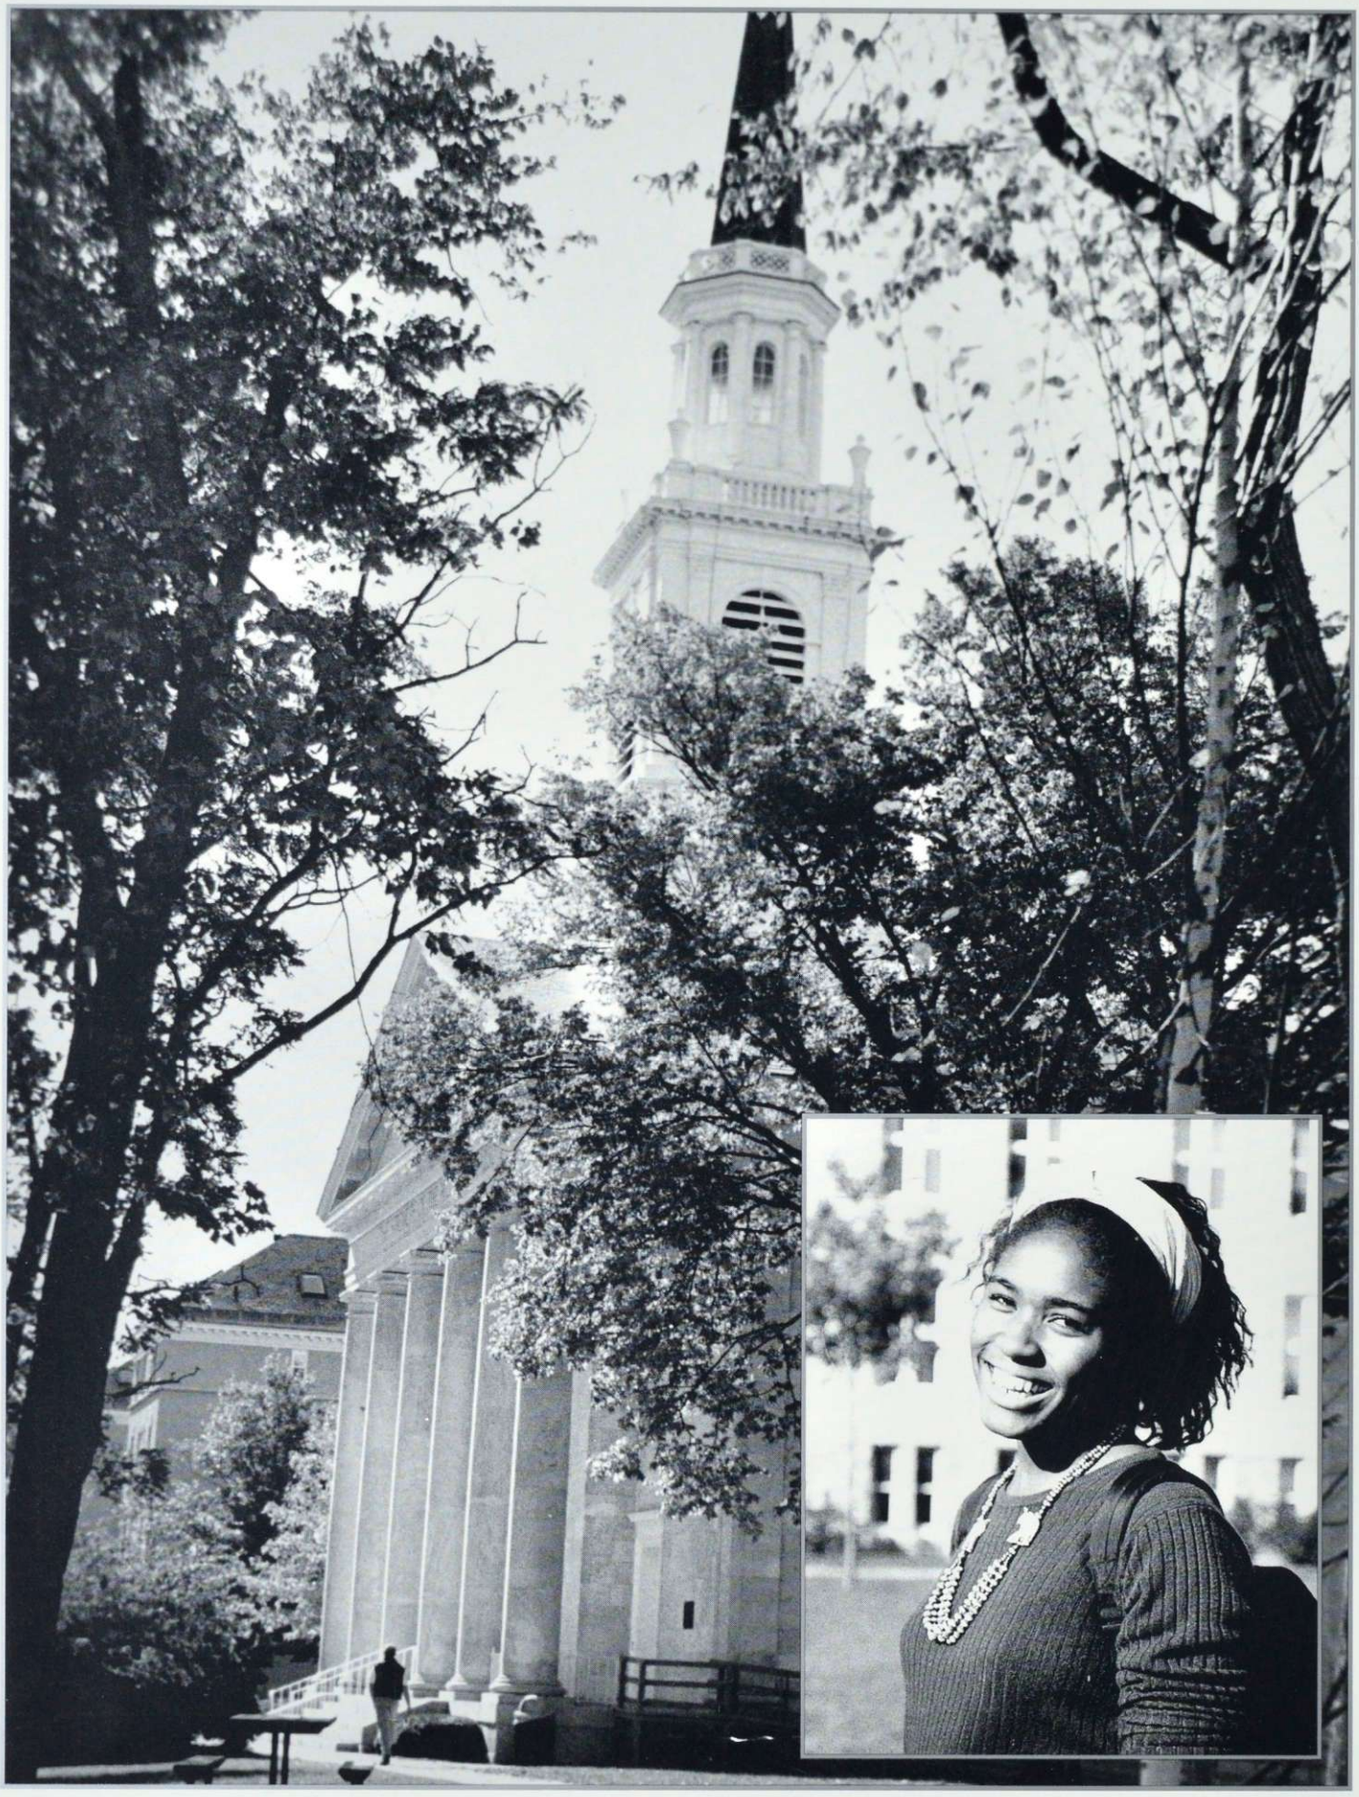
first kaleidoscope 1873



the students all looked so together and crunchy and just plain older that i dreamed of the day when i too could go to middlebury and carry my own mug around in the back of my north face backback or in my patigonia fleece jacket's pocket.

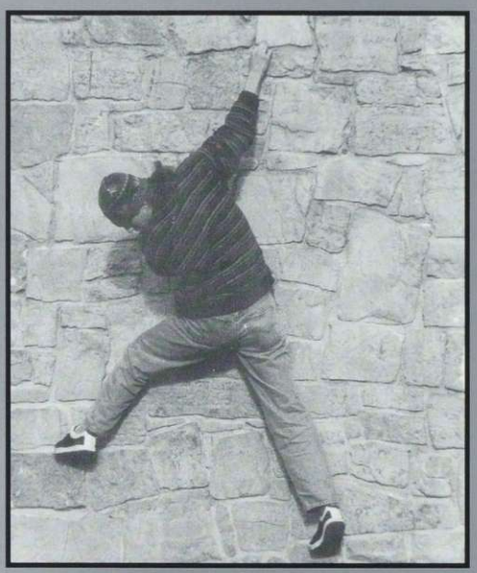
Amanda Levine '98

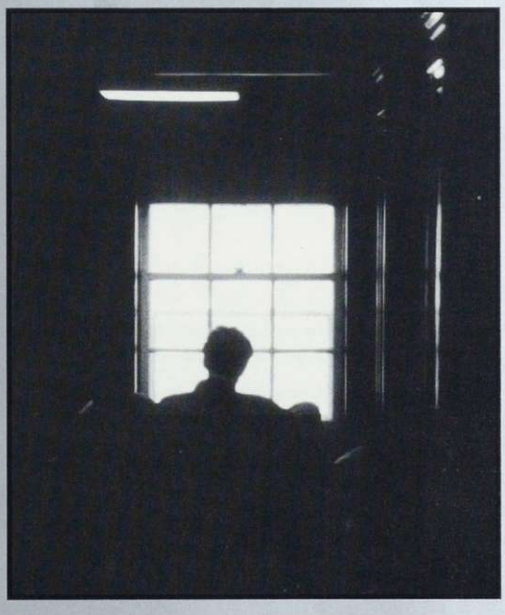


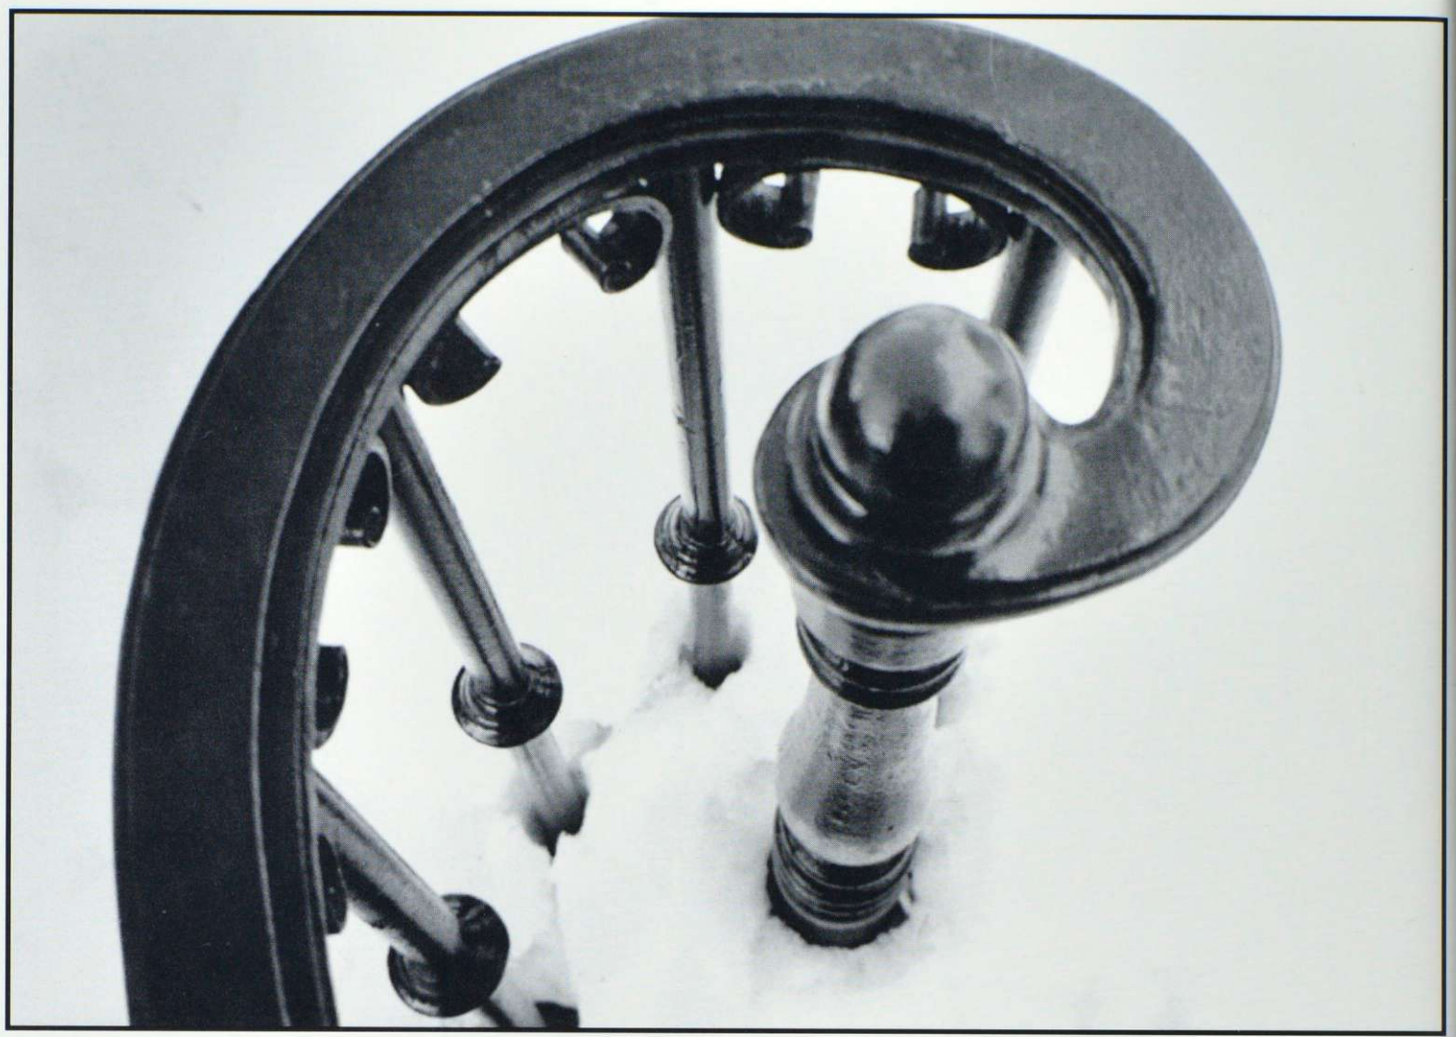


i'm the kid who loves this school.

Andrew W. Smith 97.5







personality is something that distinguishes you from other kids. unfortunately, not everyone will get personality, and you might not get one either. but take heart camper! many people without personalities have found a trick, a personality substitute, that gets them through those formative college years.

the new old chapel

that chapel bell

1910 Kaleidoscope

that chapel bell, that chapel bell,
how many a tale its discords tell
of crazy greek and german text, of flunked "exams" professors vexed--
that chapel bell, that chapel bell,
how many a tale its discords tell!

how oft my breakfast had to wait,
'twas chapel time, and i was late.
how oft i wished that chapel bell were in the deepest depths of hell
that chapel bell, that chapel bell,
how many a tale its discords tell!

i've been in many a railroad wreck, played football, got it in the neck;
but these seem trifles, sad to tell,
whene'er i hear that chapel bell.
that chapel bell, that chapel bell,
how many a tale its discords tell!

and so 'twill be when i am gone,
that chapel bell will ring on,
while other tutors, other profs,
will joy in flunking other sophs.
that chapel bell, that chapel bell,
how many a tale its discords tell!

MIDDLEBURY

in the real world the mountains might not be quite as green as they are here in vermont, and everyone probably won't have a different color of the same patagonia jacket but we'll be prepared to meet the world on its own terms. and middlebury will always be the place we spent four years, the place we made our best friends, and learned our deepest lessons.

we are trying to do everything we have wanted to do since we entered middlebury, and we're doing everything we like to do again. when we're not doing this, a&w gets a lot of business.

Caro Antonio,

ti anguriamo un brillante futuro.
Con affetto,

mamma, papa, and Annamaria

Of the little girl from San Antonio
Who went to Middlebury to grow

We are so proud
That we sing aloud:

"Way to go Bets, we all love you so."

Love,

Mom, Dad and Coleman

Congratulations Amy!

What lies behind you and what lies before you are tiny matters compared to what lies within you.
–Emerson–
And what lies within you will carry you to your dreams.

All our Love and Best Wishes,

Mom, Dad, Beth and Tess

Congratulations, Jessica!

Love,

Dad, Mom, Aron and Jason

Congratulations, Ron II

Love, Dad & Mom

Born in the capital,
Toddled in the west,
Minneapolis was where
You came to rest.

Till the day,
Childhood behind,
You headed east
To refine your mind.

You and Midd did it.
We couldn't be prouder–
Just hear us yelling
Louder and louder,

"Hannah Lewis is awesome!
Hannah Lewis is great!
We love you forever! Now,
Please farm in our state!"

Love always from Mom, Dad, and Sage

"I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I–
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference."

Carly, what wonderful "roads" you have taken, Middlebury being one. Congratulations and all our love, Dad, Mom and Stacy.

Caroline,

Congratulations!
You are amazing...
You have been a delight...
May your future be as joyful as has been the past.

Love,

Mom & Martin

From the East to the West, You are the Best!

Congratulations
We Love You
Mom & Dad & Lesley & Erik

Congratulations to Sarah Gilson and the Class of '97

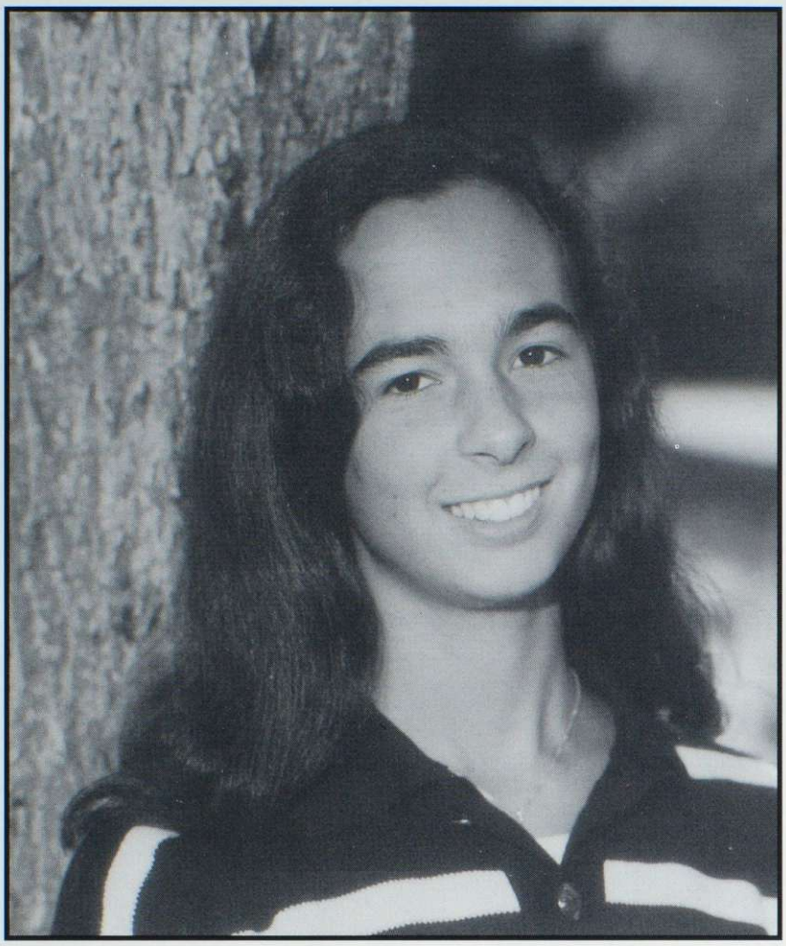
Love Mom, Dad, David, Andrew, and Fredie

John, Clint, Matt, Pete and Ozzie
Never lose track of your Depot friendship!
Congratulations, graduates and Good Luck to all of you!
Gary and Barb



Alissa–

Congratulations on the major accomplishment! We are most happy for you and we are enjoying a tremendous sense of pride.

Much Love & Respect,

Mom, Dad, Atina & Annica

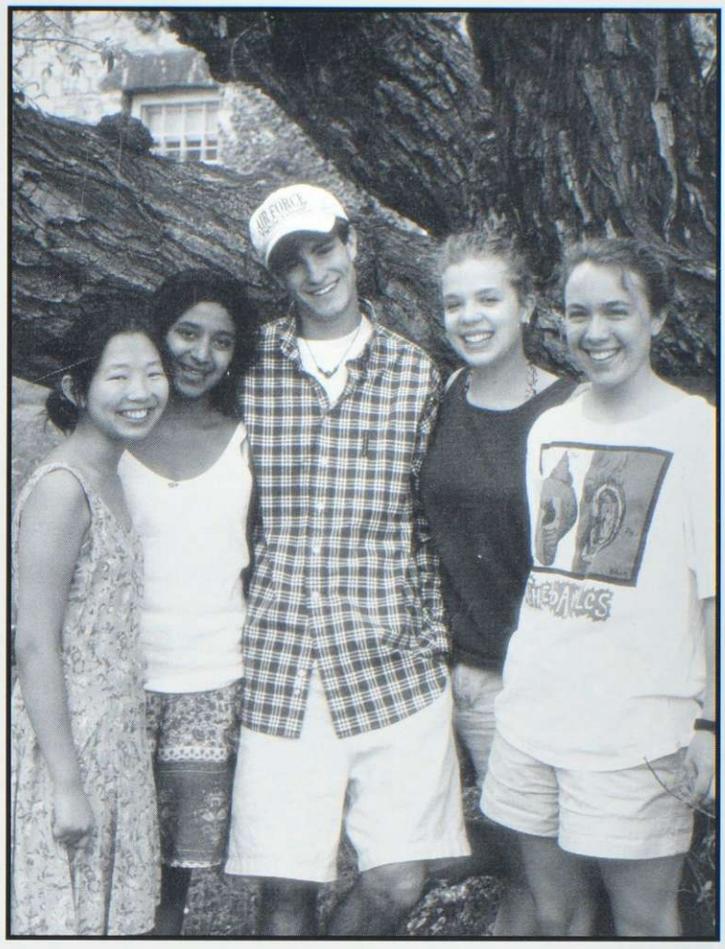
Stephanie,

You must Have Been A Beautiful Baby...
Love -
Mom, Dad, Nathan and Meredith

Katie–

You've always made us proud.

Congratulations and Love,
Mom, Dad and Tad



Melissa, Gentle Heart... You continue to excel in achieving your chosen goals and exceed our expectations of our wonder child! You sprinkle your magic with such generosity of spirit and make the world a happy home.
You make us proud parents!
We love you, Mom & Dad

Meliss,

Roses are red,
Violets are blue,
We are so proud of you.
From footloose slides
To flips and dives,
We're so glad you survived!
So congratulations on all you've done
We've loved you since the day you began!

Love always, Jen and Joann

Congratulations Class of 1997! The Giuttaris

Congratulations,
Shannon

We're very proud of you.

Love,

Mom, Dad,
Brian, Courtney, Patrick,
and Kerry

Dear Chris,

Congratulations! We are very proud of you and wish you all the success in the world.

Love,

Dad, Mom and Veronica

Congratulations, Kristen

Take all that life can give.
Love, Dad and Mom

Warning

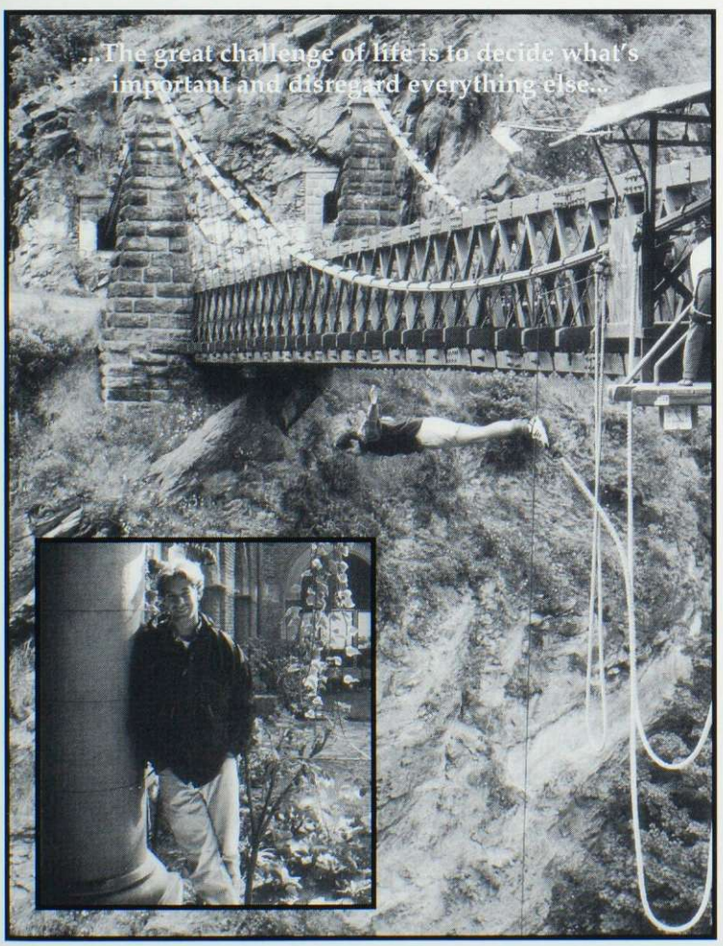
Jenny Joseph

When I am an old woman I shall wear purple
With a red hat which doesn't go, and doesn't suit me.
And I shall spend my pension on brandy and summer gloves
And satin sandals, and say we've no money for butter.
I shall sit down on the pavement when I'm tired
And gobble up samples in shops and press alarm bells
And run my stick along the public railings
And make up for the sobriety of my youth.
I shall go out in my slippers in the rain
And pick the flowers in other people's gardens
And learn to spit.

You can wear terrible shirts and grow more fat
And eat three pounds of sausages at a go
Or only bread and pickle for a week
And hoard pens and pencils and beermats and things in boxes.

But now we must have clothes that keep us dry
And pay our rent and not swear in the street
And set a good example for the children.
We must have friends to dinner and read the papers.

But maybe I ought to practice a little now?
So people who know me are not too shocked and surprised
When suddenly I am old, and start to wear purple.



Robb-
You have put the puzzle of your life together well. The world around you will enjoy viewing the results as you go forward. Love Dad

THREE WORDS, EIGHT LETTERS, ONE THOUGHT, I LOVE YOU...MOM

Robby,
I couldn't be more blessed to have a brother like you. Tengo suerte, y mi corazon esta llenia.
Love Kristy

...People are often in such a hurry to get to the "good life" that they often pass it...

Teachers open the door, but you must enter by yourself.
Chinese Proverb

Congratulations and Best Wishes
Stephen, Beth and Patrick Sanders

Dear Chrissi–

"Some people come into our lives and quickly go, some stay for awhile and leave footprints on our hearts and we are never ever the same."

— Winnie-The-Pooh

Moon–

We love you and are so proud of who you are!

Dad, Mom, Bill and Erin and Murphy, Too!

–Amy–

Congratulations and best of luck in the years ahead.

Love,

Dad, Mom, Ned
